4.0 Unfinished Business

050616 Solid Waste Contract - Update

Jim Karls could not attend. Goldsmith: reviewed literature passed out at the meeting tonight.

070424 Clean Air Counts

Kuehlenz: still doing slides out on Channel 6. Patty Lindstrom is doing a new column for the Lombard PRIDE called "The Green Scene".

080726 2009 Recycling Extravaganza

Gron: need to approve the RFP's. Goldsmith: asked the committee to disregard the RFP's included in the packet. Passed out revised proposals to the committee. Goldsmith reviewed these with the members. Adams: can't rely too heavily on the tonnage amounts from last year due to the weather conditions. Discussion ensued. Bartt: do we know where COM2's recycling goes? Goldsmith: they have assured us that they follow all of the rules. Lyons: very disappointed that a letter did not go out to Jade Lee. There are a lot more communities having electronics recycling so there may be less than in the previous years. Further discussion ensued. Hildebrand: no IEPA event this year.

Committee is requesting the following information from the Electronic Recyclers:

1. Can they staff the event properly.

2. What is the stream of flow and how it is done.
3. A reference from the Carol Stream recycling event or any other events that they can provide. Would like this information from COM2 and Vintage Tech. Same thing with Jade Lee.

*Address info for Jade Lee from Lyons:

5.0 New Business

6.0 Other Business

*Gron: a new German Company is moving into the Chicagoland area. Looking at Lake Michigan area/windmill power.
Commercial recycling - shopping center in Oregon has a 3 bin garbage can system - trash, plastic, glass. In Portland there are no garbage cans out at all except for in fast food restaurants; there is garbage everywhere.
Reviewed seminar attended in Oregon - leaf recycling on 22 acres.*

7.0 Information Only

Gron: reviewed County Board memo with members. Bartt: sign at Good Will Center by Menards stating that they accept electronics. I spoke with the manager; he will e-mail me something. Further discussion ensued. Gron: would like to see more businesses recycling.
