

PROCLAMATION

EDUCATION DAY

WHEREAS, a quality public education system is vitally important to the well-being of a community - to its quality of life, its economic vitality, the safety and security of its neighborhoods, the future of its children; and

WHEREAS, a quality public education system requires a strong commitment from all those who live and work in cities, towns and villages; and

WHEREAS, many mayors and city governments are increasing their involvement in the public education system by strengthening links among schools, local businesses; community facilities, police departments, families and neighborhoods; and

WHEREAS, School District #44 has declared Wednesday, November 7, 2007 Education Day to demonstrate that education is a top priority for all mayors to encourage city, town and village governments to initiate new efforts or expand existing ones to strengthen local public school systems;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, William J. Mueller, President of the Village of Lombard, proclaim Wednesday, November 7, 2007 Education Day in the Village of Lombard and pledge that we recognize the importance of a quality public education system in our Village and take actions to mobilize the Village government and the various segments of our community in support of our public schools.
