Re: Swearing In of Probationary Officer Christopher Ratini

Please be advised that the Lombard Police Department would like to have Probationary Police Officer Christopher Ratini sworn in at the Village Board meeting on October 16th. We will be hosting an informal coffee reception for Officer Ratini and his family at the Lombard Police Department at 7:00 p.m. prior to the Village Board meeting.

I would respectfully request that you place this item on the agenda for October 16, 2008.

LOMBARD POLICE DEPARTMENT

TO: All Personnel

FROM: Chief Ray Byrne

DATE: September 9, 2008

SUBJECT: WELCOME TO OUR NEW EMPLOYEE – CHRISTOPHER RATINI

We have a new probationary police officer starting work with our department on Monday, September 15.

Chris graduated from Lake Park High School and received his Bachelor's degree from Elmhurst College. He and his wife, Laura and son, Kendan live in Itasca. He has been employed as a Latin American Sales Representative for the last 13 years with Arlington Plastics Machinery. Chris is interested in riding motorcycles and ATV's as well as exercising and bicycling. He is scheduled to attend the SLEA class beginning September 29.

Please introduce yourself to Chris and make him welcome.
