I was asked to be a member of the Lombard Historical Commission in the summer of 2017, by President Rita Schneider. I felt I needed to give it some thought and we agreed that I could have the time to get thru the busy summer and give my decision in the fall. After speaking with Rita, it was clear why my interest in Lombard's historical preservation was such a draw to me. We live at 226 S. Brewster Ave, the home of Henry Assman, one of Lombard's founding families. We live in the oldest brick home in village of Lombard and have spent the last 20 years restoring it to its historical integrity. I've worked with Jean Cooper and Sarah Richardt and the Lombard Historical Society, researching our home and finding out decorating styles to match the age of the home. We are proud historical home owners and have a strong presence in the community. Living in the historic district gives you a perspective and advantage of the programs available.

My interest in Lombard has always been strong. My husband often jokes and call's me Lombard Lynn. I am vested in the downtown and live close to it and frequent it with all its activities. I participated in the past in Lombard Town Centre's Promotions board and help organize the original Dog's on Parade in the Downtown years ago. I still have a presence in Downtown Lombard as a volunteer in some events like Spooktacular. I stay interested in Lombard history by working as a volunteer for the last 10 years as a docent on the Lombard House walk. This is where our historical colleagues congregate. My love of old houses runs deep, after growing up in a community of Hinsdale. I attend board meetings when areas of interest need to be addressed within our village. I also attend community meetings regarding the Lombard Park District (recreation center) and the Lombard Library. I am young enough to do many things and have a great energy and interest in all things Lombard.

I belong to St. John's Lutheran Church and School. All 3 our children attended there and one is still there. As a stay at home mom, I've had the flexibility to volunteer in many different positions throughout the school and church over the years. Over the last 12 years I have been part of the PTO, Room Mom, Christmas Sale volunteer, Library aid, computer assistant, Special Event/Auction Committee and a member of the Nominating Committee at church. I also volunteer on the special events committee of our Lombard Firebird's Club soccer's yearly tournament. My older 2 children are attend Glenbard East High School and I volunteer with the Booster Club as needed.

We own our own business and I work from home on a part-time basis. Managing the office, payroll and financials. I am a woman who wears many hats! My children are getting older and I'm ready for some new challenges. Areas that interest me more and speak to my heart, rather than ones that just focus on my children's activities. The Lombard Historical Commission fit's that criteria.

Thank you for giving me the invitation and time to adjust my schedule for this new position and a fresh start of interest in 2018. I look forward to hearing your decision and working for the commission.

Sincerely,
