The number of Directors of the Corporation shall be five (5) unless changed by amendment of this section. The initial Directors shall be appointed by the Village President with the advice and consent of the Board of Trustees of the Village of Lombard. A Director may be removed with or without cause by the majority vote of the members of the President and Board of Trustees of the Village of Lombard.

All Directors, except in the case of earlier resignation, removal or death, shall hold office until their respective successors are chosen and qualified in the same manner as the initial Board of Directors.

Section 4.2. Vacancies. Any vacancy on the Board of Directors caused by an increase in the number of Directors or the expiration of the term of a Director shall be filled in the same manner as the initial Board of Directors was appointed. No decrease in the number of Directors shall have the effect of shortening the term of any incumbent Director.

Any vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors caused by resignation, removal, death or other incapacity shall be filled in the same manner as the initial Board of Directors was appointed.

Section 4.3. Annual Meeting of Directors. The Board of Directors shall meet each year on the first Monday in June, at such place either within or without the State of Illinois as shall be set forth in the notice of the meeting, for the purpose of election of officers and consideration of any other business that may properly come before the meeting. No notice of any kind to either old or new members of the Board of Directors for such annual meeting shall be necessary.

Directors, in lieu of such notice, may sign a written waiver of notice either before the time of the meeting, at the meeting or after the meeting. Attendance by a director in person at any such special meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice.

Section 4.6. Quorum. A majority of the actual number of Directors in office immediately before a meeting begins, shall be necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business, and the act of a majority of the Directors present at the meeting, at which a quorum is present, shall be the act of the Board of Directors, unless the act of a greater number is required by the Illinois General Not for Profit Corporation Act of 1986 (the "Act"), by the Articles of Incorporation, or by these By-Laws.

Section 4.7. Participation in Meetings. Section 7.1. Except as indicated in the Articles of Incorporation, the power to make, alter, amend, or repeal these By-Laws is vested in the Board of Directors, but the affirmative vote of a majority of the actual number of Directors elected and qualified, from time to time, shall be necessary to effect any alteration, amendment or repeal of these By-Laws. However, no amendment to Article IV shall be effective without the approval of the President and Board of Trustees of the Village of Lombard.

ARTICLE VIII

Indemnification

Section 8.1. Indemnification Against Third Party Claims. This Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party, or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the Corporation) by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding, if such person acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation or, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, that the person had reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful.

Section 8.2. Indemnification Against Claims by the Corporation. The Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party, or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit, if such person acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Corporation, provided that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his or her duty to the corporation, unless, and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability, but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses as the court shall deem proper.

Section 8.3. Scope of Indemnification. To the extent that a present or former director, officer or employee of the Corporation has been successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in Section 8.1 or Section 8.2, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, such person shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection therewith, if that person acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Corporation.

Section 8.4. Procedure for Indemnification. Any indemnification under Section 8.1 or Section 8.2 (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the Corporation only as authorized in the specific case, upon a determination that indemnification of the present or former director, officer, employee or agent is proper in the circumstances because he or she has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 8.1 or Section 8.2. Such determination shall be made with respect to a person who is a director or officer at the time of the determination: (1) by the majority vote of the directors who are not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, even though less than a quorum, (2) by a committee of the directors designated by a majority vote of the directors, even through less than a quorum, (3) if there are no such directors, or if the directors so direct, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or (4) by the members entitled to vote, if any.

Section 8.5. Time of Indemnification. Expenses (including attorney's fees) incurred by an officer or director in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding may be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding, as authorized by its Board of Directors in the specific case, upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director or officer to repay such amount, unless it shall ultimately be determined that such person is entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation as authorized in this Article. Such expenses (including attorney's fees) incurred by former directors and officers or other employees and agents may be so paid on such terms and conditions, if any, as the Corporation deems appropriate.

Section 8.6. Indemnification Not Exclusive. The indemnification provided by the Article shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of members or disinterested directors, or otherwise, both as to action in his or her official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Section 8.7. Insurance. The Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, against any liability asserted against such person and incurred by such person in any such capacity, or arising out of his or her status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such liability under the provisions of this Article.

Section 8.8. "Corporation" Defined. For purposes of this Article, references to the "Corporation" shall include, in addition to the Corporation, any surviving corporation, any merging corporation (including any corporation having merged with a merging corporation) absorbed in a merger which, if its separate existence had continued, would have had the power and authority to indemnify its directors, officers, employees or agents, so that any person who was a director, officer, employee or agent of such merging corporation, shall stand in the same position under the provisions of this Article with respect to the surviving corporation as such person would have with respect to such merging corporation if its separate existence had continued.

ARTICLE IX

Executive Committee

Section 9.1 Formation of Executive Committee. The Board of Directors hereby appoints from their number an Executive Committee constituted of two (2) members of the Board of Directors selected by the Board, for the transaction of any business of the Corporation and the signing of any documents which may need to be signed by or on behalf of the Corporation, or which may require the attention of the Corporation, during the intervals between meetings of the Board of Directors. All documents signed by either member of the Executive Committee shall be reported to the Board of Directors at the Board's next regular or special meeting, and each and every business transaction conducted by either member of the Executive Committee and all documents signed by either member of the Executive Committee shall be ratified by the Board of Directors as its said next meeting.

Section 9.2 Powers. The Executive Committee and each member thereof shall possess and may exercise all of the powers of the Board of Directors, except as otherwise provided in 805 ILCS 105 /108.40(c).

Section 9.3 Term and Scope. The members of the Executive Committee shall serve at the pleasure of the Board of Directors, but not beyond the expiration of their respective terms of office as Directors. Vacancies in the Executive Committee shall be filled from and by the Board of Directors, and each member of the Executive Committee shall be fully authorized to act without any action by or notice to the other member of the Executive Committee, and such action shall have the full power and authority of the Corporation.

Section 9.4 Circumstances under which Executive Committee is to Act. No action may be taken by either member of the Executive Committee pursuant to this Bylaw unless (1) there is a pressing need to get documents signed expeditiously and (2) due to the lack of a quorum, no special meeting of the Board of Directors can be held.

ARTICLE X

As such, the Corporation shall not sell, transfer or otherwise convey title to the Hotel and Convention Facility to a third party without the prior consent of the President and Board of Trustees of the Village of Lombard, with said consent to be solely within the discretion of the President and Board of Trustees. Said consent shall be in the form of a resolution adopted by the President and the Board of Trustees of the Village of Lombard, and filed with the Corporation. If the President and Board of Trustees of the Village of Lombard approve of the sale of the Hotel and Convention Facility to a third party by the Corporation, title to the Hotel and Convention Facility shall, if so directed by the President and Board of Trustees of the Village of Lombard, first be conveyed to the Village of Lombard prior to the transfer thereof to said third party, and the Corporation shall also assign to the Village of Lombard all of the Corporation's rights, title, interests, privileges, duties and obligations in any contract or agreement with such third party with respect to the sale, transfer or other conveyance of the Hotel and Convention Facility.
