MEMORANDUM

TO: William T. Lichter, Village Manager

FROM: David A. Hulseberg, AICP, Director of Community Development DH

DATE: March 1, 2007

SUBJECT: Medal of Character Excellence - Glenbard East Student Council

The Village Board of Trustees at their May 4, 2006 meeting approved the institution of the above-mentioned awards program to recognize community students for actions of good character. The Community Relations Committee at their February 19, 2007 meeting reviewed the nomination of the Glenbard East Student Council by Sandra Hill of Outreach House and voted to approve this nomination.

Please present the Medal of Character Excellence Award to the Glenbard East Student Council at the March 1, 2007 Village Board of Trustees meeting.

Medal of Character Excellence
NOMINATION FORM

Name of Students: GlenBard East Student Council

Age/Grades: Freshmen-Seniors

School: GlenBard East

Address: 1014 S. Main Street, Lombard, IL

Student Council Adult Representative: Mr. Jim Carter & Mr. Phil Zima

Pillars of Character Being Recognized:

- Respect-the work that is being done in the community and recognizing the worth
- Responsibility-being responsible for their neighbors
- Caring-about future students of GB East/Babies of FTF
- Citizenship-recognizing needs in the community

Reasons why The Student Council of GB East should receive the Character of Excellence award:

For the past six years, the Student Council of GlenBard East has donated the proceeds from various Homecoming Activities. This year the money collected at The Homecoming Dodge Ball Game and the Junior/Senior Powderpuff Football Game has been donated for First Things First. Under Jim Carter's & Phil Zima's leadership, the students recognize that the babies we help at First Things First, one day will be students at GlenBard East or other area high schools. They understand the need for a healthy start in life.

Each year at The Powderpuff game, Sandra Hill in introduced at the game to flip the coin, and the audience is educated of the work that is done at First Things First, further spreading the word.

First Things First is especially proud of young people who care for the young children in their community. I know GlenBard East is proud of The Student Council and the good work they do!

Activities outside of school: Halloween Trick or Treat Food Drive, Toy Drive during the holidays, various donations to families with special needs, assistance to students for cap & gown purchase, Lymphoma Society donations and responsible for overall "School Spirit" activities.

Please accept this nomination for a group of kids who deserve to be recognized!

Sincerely,

Sandra J. Hill
