To The Lombard Village Board:

March 4, 2014

I have been a taxi driver for almost nine years now, and one of the greatest rewards is providing service to passengers that have been treated poorly by other drivers. One of the major complaints I have heard over the past nine years has come from quite a few of the Lombard seniors stating drivers have argued and even denied accepting the subsidy coupons. Those are the passengers I want. It is with great pride that I am honored to be of service to these seniors that deserve to be treated with respect and dignity.

Even though I am currently the only driver with the company, it is my hopes to be approved for a license to provide the type of service the Lombard residents are entitled to and deserve.

Thank you for considering my company.
