Chicago, Aurora and Elgin Railroad/ Prairie Path

Discussion relative to Commemorative Signage.

Commissioner Mueller updated the Committee on the process of obtaining all the photos for the signs. The owner of Randall Bullen Photography was very helpful in arranging higher quality versions of the photos selected by the Committee. The Committee members approved the minor corrections indicated by staff. Staff was then directed to forward these corrections to the sign company and once completed, requested that the Main Street sign be produced for review before the other three signs are produced.
