

PROCLAMATION

NATIONAL UNIVERSITY OF HEALTH SCIENCES
CENTENNIAL ANNIVERSARY

WHEREAS, National University of Health Sciences, located in Lombard, Illinois, was founded in 1906, 100 years ago, as the National School of Chiropractic and Institute of Adjustment and became National College of Chiropractic in 1920 and National University of Health Sciences in 2000; and

WHEREAS, National University of Health Sciences was first accredited by the National Chiropractic Association in 1941 and was the first institution of its kind to receive full accreditation by the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools in 1981; and

WHEREAS, National University of Health Sciences is recognized the world over as an institution dedicated to quality education in all of its programs and currently holds the highest entry standards of schools in its class; and

WHEREAS, National University of Health Sciences has demonstrated a commitment to research, publishing three scientific journals as well as contributing important findings in the field of spinal health and anatomy;

WHEREAS, National University has provided a major and positive economic impact on the local community, as well as offering many resources to the community; and

NOW, THEREFORE, I, William J. Mueller, President of the Village of Lombard, do hereby proclaim June 2006 as National University of Health Sciences month in the Village of Lombard in honor of 100 years of service to the students and the Village of Lombard.

---

William J. Mueller
Village President

