MEMORANDUM

TO: David A. Hulseberg, Village Manager

FROM: William J. Heniff, AICP, Director of Community Development WJH

DATE: October 16, 2008

SUBJECT: 11-21 E. St. Charles Road - Hammerschmidt Property Purchase Agreement
(Ordinance and Final Agreement)

In the initial Board packet, staff included a draft purchase and sale agreement for the property at 11-21 E. St. Charles Road. We noted that the agreement is acceptable in form, but there are a few items that need to be rectified and/or clarified between the parties prior to final signature. Attached for Board consideration is the final agreement for consideration.

As the previous purchase and sale agreements were approved by Ordinance, Village Counsel has prepared an Ordinance repealing the previous Ordinances of approval and amending the approval of this agreement.

Staff also requests a waiver of first reading of the Ordinance, in order to effectuate a timely closing on the property.

The Earnest Money Deposit shall be applied to the Purchase Price, unless the Earnest Money is forfeited to Seller pursuant to the terms of this Contract.

5. CLOSING DATE. The closing (the "Closing") of the contemplated purchase and sale of the Property shall take place through a deed and money escrow ("Escrow") on October 29, 2008 ("Closing Date") at the office of Chicago Title Insurance Company, 171 North Clark, Third Floor, Chicago, IL (the "Title Company") or at such other time and place as mutually agreed to by the parties. 6. ENVIRONMENTAL INSPECTION AND CONTINGENCY PERIOD. Notwithstanding any term to the contrary in this Contract, prior to the Closing, the Village shall have the right at any time, at its sole cost and expense, to select and retain environmental and other consultants to examine and inspect the physical condition of the Property (including the groundwater thereunder), to conduct a site assessment and environmental audit, and to perform any environmental and engineering investigation or testing it deems necessary and appropriate (hereinafter "Environmental Assessment"). The Seller grants to the Village and its consultants, their employees, agents, subcontractors and representatives, full access to the Property (including the groundwater thereunder) for the purposes of conducting a complete inspection of the Property and to perform such tests, including without limitation subsurface testing, soil and groundwater testing, and other tests which may physically invade the Property or improvements thereon or to conduct other environmental and engineering investigations, as the Seller, in its sole discretion, determines is necessary to protect its interests and will do nothing to interfere with the investigation of the Property (including the groundwater thereunder). This period shall be known as the "Environmental Contingency Period" (or the Contingency Period), and shall commence one day after the effective date of this Agreement. The Seller shall immediately provide all documents and information in Seller's possession, custody or control which relate or refer to the Property (including the groundwater thereunder), its present and prior uses, or to the activities at or near the Property (including the groundwater thereunder) and any and all environmental audits, reports or documents that refer or relate to the Property if requested, the Seller will make available to the Village's consultants those key people having knowledge about the environmental practices and procedures of the Seller and prior occupants of the Property, and, if necessary, will make available all documents and information in the Seller's possession, custody or control which relate to adjacent property. The term "Environmental Assessment" as referred to in this section shall include, but not be limited to, Phase I and Phase II environmental audits. The documents, information, audits and reports to be provided to Buyer by Seller in this paragraph shall only include those obtained by Seller or created during the period from June 9, 2005, until the Closing Date, all of which are described in Subparagraph 14K.

The Village shall not be obligated to take title to the Property if, in the Village's sole and exclusive judgment, for any reason whatsoever (including, without limitation, information revealed by the Environmental Assessment), it determines that the use or condition of the Property (including the groundwater thereunder), or any part thereof or any adjacent property, poses a health, safety or environmental hazard, or if the Environmental Assessment reveals or if at any time prior to closing the Village otherwise becomes aware of the existence of any environmental condition which may be dangerous and/or unacceptable to the Village, or in violation of any environmental law or regulation including, but not limited to, the presence of any Hazardous Material, as said term is defined below. Pursuant to this paragraph, the Village shall have the right, in its sole and exclusive judgment, to revoke its acceptance of this Agreement prior to taking title to the Property, and to declare this Agreement and the Resolution accepting it, null and void. The Village shall restore the Property to its condition prior to any such Assessment.

7. TITLE INSURANCE.

Within ten (10) business days of the Effective Date, Buyer, at Seller's cost and expense, shall obtain a title commitment issued by the Title Company, in the amount of the Purchase Price, with extended coverage (at Buyer's cost) over the standard exceptions 1 through 5 (the "Title Commitment"), together with copies of all underlying title documents listed in the Title Commitment (the "Underlying Title Documents"), subject only to those matters described in Exhibit B, attached hereto and made a part hereof (the "Permitted Exceptions"). Buyer shall provide Seller with an objection letter (the "Buyer's Objection Letter") listing the Unpermitted Exceptions, which are not acceptable to Buyer. Seller shall have five (5) days from the date of receipt of the Buyer's Objection Letter ("Seller's Cure Period") to have the Unpermitted Exceptions removed from the Title Commitment or to cure such Unpermitted Exceptions or to have the Title Company commit to insure against loss or damage that may be occasioned by such Unpermitted Exceptions, the Closing shall be extended such additional time, but not beyond November 15, 2008 (the "Extended Title Closing Date") after Buyer's receipt of a proforma title policy (the "Proforma Title Policy") reflecting the Title Company's commitment to insure the Unpermitted Exceptions. If Seller fails to have the Unpermitted Exceptions removed or in the alternative, to obtain a Title Commitment insuring the Unpermitted Exceptions within the specified time, Buyer may elect to either (i) terminate this Contract, at which time the Buyer shall be entitled to have the Earnest Money Deposit returned to Buyer and this Contract shall become null and void without further action of the parties, or (ii) upon notice to Seller within ten (10) days after Buyer's receipt of Seller's intention not to cure the Unpermitted Exceptions, to take title as if then is with the right to deduct from the Purchase Price any liens or encumbrances of a definite or ascertainable amount which are listed in the Title Commitment and that resulted from the activities of Seller. ("EPCRA"), and the Illinois Environmental Protection Act, and other comparable federal, state or local laws and all rules, regulations and guidance documents promulgated pursuant thereto or published thereunder, as any or all of the foregoing may from time to time be amended, supplemented or modified. For the purposes of this Contract, the phrase "Hazardous Materials" shall mean each and every element, compound, chemical mixture, contaminant, pollutant, material, waste or other substance which is defined, determined or identified as hazardous or toxic under Environmental Laws or the release of which is regulated under Environmental Laws. v. Seller has received no notice of and to the best of Seller's knowledge and belief, except as disclosed in the Environmental Reports, the Property (including the groundwater thereunder) does not violate any law, regulation or agreement applicable to the Property (including the groundwater thereunder) or its use. With respect to the Property (including the groundwater thereunder), if Seller shall (a) receive notice that any violation of any federal, state or local Environmental, health or safety law or regulation may have been committed or is about to be committed with respect to the Property (including the groundwater thereunder), (b) receive notice that any administrative or judicial complaint or order has been filed or is about to be filed alleging violations of any federal, state or local Environmental law or regulation or requiring Seller to take any action in connection with the release of any Hazardous Materials into the environment, (c) receive any notice from a federal, state or local governmental agency or private party alleging that the Seller may be liable or responsible for costs associated with a response to or cleanup of a release of any Hazardous Materials into the environment or any damages caused thereby, (d) receive any notice that the Seller is subject to federal, state or local investigation evaluating whether any remedial action is needed to respond to the release of any hazardous or toxic waste, substance or constituent, or other Hazardous Materials into the environment, or (e) receive any notice that the Property or assets of Seller are subject to a lien in favor of any governmental entity for any liability under the federal, state or local Environmental Laws or regulations or damages arising from or costs incurred by such governmental entity in response to a release of a hazardous or toxic waste, substance or constituent, or other Hazardous Materials into the environment, then the Seller shall promptly provide the Buyer with a copy of such notice, and in no event later than seven (7) days from Seller's receipt thereof.

vi. There are no proceedings pending or, to the best knowledge and belief of Seller, threatened against or affecting the Seller in any court or before any governmental authority or arbitration board or tribunal, which if adversely determined, would materially and adversely affect the Property. The Seller is not in default with respect to any order of any court or governmental authority or arbitration board or tribunal, which default would materially and adversely affect the Property.

vii. To the best knowledge and belief of the Seller, except as disclosed in the Environmental Reports, the Property has not been built or used, in whole or in part, on or as a landfill and the soil is not contaminated by Hazardous Substances or Hazardous Materials.

viii. The Seller covenants that he shall not create, store, release or allow the retention, storage or release of any Hazardous Substances on the Property.

ix. Seller's obligations hereunder shall in no way be impaired, reduced or released by reason of the Buyer's omission or delay to exercise any right described herein or in connection with any notice, demand, warning or claim regarding violations of any Environmental Laws governing the Property (including the groundwater thereunder).

x. Seller's liability hereunder shall not be limited by the other provisions contained in the Contract, and the Seller agrees that the indemnification contained herein is separate, independent of and in addition to Seller's other undertakings under this Contract.

xI. Seller's covenants, representations and warranties in this subparagraph 14k shall be limited to the term of Seller's ownership of the Property (June 2, 2006, through the Closing Date). The Buyer acknowledges that it was the owner of the Property prior to its sale of the Property to Seller in 2006, and in no event shall Seller be liable for any condition that pre-existed Seller's ownership of the Property.

L. This paragraph intentionally left blank.

M. Section 1445 Withholding. Seller represents that he/she/it/they is/are not a "foreign person" as defined in Section 1445 of the Internal Revenue Code and is/are, therefore, exempt from the withholding requirements of said Section. At Closing, Seller shall furnish Buyer with a Non-foreign Affidavit as set forth in said Section 1445.

In the event of the breach of any covenant, warranty or representation made herein or elsewhere in this Agreement by the Seller, the Seller agrees to indemnify and hold the Village, its servants, employees, agents, successors and assigns (collectively "Village Affiliates") harmless against all losses, damages, liabilities, costs, expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees) and charges which the Village Affiliates may incur or to which the Village Affiliates may become subject as a direct or indirect consequence of such breach.

Seller shall assume the expense of defending all suits, administrative proceedings and disputes of any description with all persons, entities, political subdivisions or government agencies arising out of the matters to be indemnified hereunder. If Village or any of the Village Affiliates is/are named as a defendant(s) in any lawsuit arising out of the matters to be indemnified hereunder, the Village and/or any of the Village Affiliates shall have the right to choose the attorney(s) who represent(s) them in said lawsuit, and the costs, expenses and fees payable to said attorney(s) in relation to said lawsuit shall be paid by Seller pursuant to the indemnification provision herein. Seller shall pay, promptly upon entry, any non-appealable order, judgment or other final resolution of any claim or dispute arising out of the matters to be indemnified hereunder and shall pay promptly when due any fines, penalties or agreed settlements arising out of the matters to be indemnified hereunder. If such payment is not made, the Village or any Village Affiliates, at their sole discretion, may proceed to file suit against the Seller to compel such payment. The Seller also agrees that it will not settle or compromise any action, suit or proceeding without the Village's prior written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed.

When used in this Paragraph, the expression "to the best knowledge and belief of Seller," or words to that effect, is deemed to mean the actual knowledge of Seller.

Closing Date. If before the Closing Date, Buyer becomes aware of a breach of any of Seller's representations and warranties in any material respect or of Seller failing to perform all of its covenants in any material respect or otherwise failing in any material respect to perform all of its obligations and fulfill all of the conditions required of Seller in order to Close on the Closing Date, Buyer may, at its option (a) elect to enforce the terms hereof by action for specific performance; or (b) attempt to cure such breach or failure by Seller for a period of up to thirty (30) days following the Closing Date, charging Seller for all costs and expenses incurred in doing so and, following such attempt, to either: (a) terminate this Contract and receive a prompt refund of the Earnest Money Deposit, or (b) proceed to Close notwithstanding such breach or non-performance. In all events, Buyer's rights and remedies under this Contract shall always be non-exclusive and cumulative and the exercise of one remedy shall not be exclusive of or constitute the waiver of any other, including all rights and remedies available to it at law or in equity.

(B) In the event of a default by Buyer, Seller's sole and exclusive right and remedy shall be to declare a forfeiture and to retain the Earnest Money Deposit as its sole liquidated damages, it being understood that Seller's actual damages in the event of such default are difficult to ascertain and that the Earnest Money Deposit is the parties' best current estimate of such damages. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties agree that no default of or by either party shall be deemed to have occurred unless and until notice of any failure by the non-defaulting party has been sent to the defaulting party and the defaulting party has been given a period of ten (10) days from receipt of the notice to cure the default.

16. BINDING EFFECT. This Contract shall inure to the benefit of, and shall be binding upon the heirs, legatees, transferees, assigns, personal representatives, owners, agents, administrators, executors, and/or successors in interest of any kind whatsoever, of the parties hereto.

Each party hereby defends, indemnifies and holds the other harmless against any and all claims of brokers, finders or the like, and against the claims of all third parties claiming any right to a commission or compensation by or through acts of that party or that party's partners, agents or affiliates in connection with this Contract. Each party's indemnity obligations shall include all damages, losses, costs, liabilities and expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees, which may be incurred by the other in connection with all matters against which the other is being indemnified hereunder. This provision shall survive the Closing.
