2020 Youth Leadership Program

The Committee will review a potential schedule for the 2020 Youth Leadership Program. The committee is being tasked to consider potential changes to the program due to lack of interest and cancellation of the 2019 program.

The Committee considered options for the future of the Youth Leadership Program. The recommendation was made to revise the program from a structured and scheduled meeting schedule, to small groups of students as the Village has requested. Village Staff will continue to provide guidance and leadership to students interested in local government.
